Marldon Parish (includes Compton)

Map of proposed plan area

Please supply a separate map showing the boundaries of the proposed plan area

Statement confirming why the proposed plan area is appropriate

Please explain why the plan area is an appropriate designation, continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

Maldon Parish provides a familiar and coherent entity which has a long standing Parish Council representing all its parishioners enabling an inclusive process of consultation and plan building to take place using existing structures and known parameters. Marldon considers itself to be an entity and in particular has fought hard in the past to preserve its independence from the Borough of Torbay and from the encroachment of the Paignton conurbation. It cherishes its rural heritage and has a strong feeling of identity focussed on the Parish Hall with its many activities and the active Church.
